

UNIVERSITY OF LIVERPOOL

Institute for Risk and Uncertainty

EPSRC | ESRC Centre for Doctoral Training in the Quantification and Management of Risk & Uncertainty in Complex Systems & Environments

Apply to our PhD programme in the exciting city of Liverpool

10 fully funded PhD studentships
available

LIFE CHANGING
World Shaping

- Package of distinctive doctoral training and development over an extended period of 4 years with the Centre for Doctoral Training (CDT)
- Multi-disciplinary research projects with input from a range of subject areas, all located in a Centre of international reputation
- Highly structured training programme inclusive of: Easter and Summer Schools, Hartree Centre course, Study Groups and Workshops
- External engagement beyond academia with industry / stakeholders
- Global collaborations with world-leading academic groups and research institutes
- Dedicated individual budget for specialist training and for participating at international conferences, inclusive of visits to the University's London campus
- At least 6 months of industrial / external placement, linking to research project and enhancing employability skills / opportunities

Studentships
commencing September 2017

Application deadline: 31 January 2017
Early applications are strongly encouraged

